

Declaration of Clearance

- Stairville fluids are professional fluids for the creation of short-term, artificial fog, haze and show effects in the event industry, theatre and film production.
- The products are non-hazardous preparations according to the EU Directive 1907/2006 (REACH).
- The products are water-based and can be used with every standard fog and haze machine operating with water-based fluids.
- The products are non-hazardous preparations in accordance with the national and international transportation regulations for land, sea and air transport.
- The used raw materials are the purest available.
- The contained water is double distilled (DD) with high chemical and microbiological purity which maximises the lifetime of the devices used.
- The products are non-combustible; a classification according to a Hazard Division for flammable liquids is not applied.
- There is no irritant effect causing inflammations of skin or mucous membranes.
- The products are readily biodegradable according to the OECD classification (modified OECD Screening Test).
- The products are environmentally safe in waste waters, disturbances of the waste water treatment systems are not expected.
- The products are completely water-soluble.
- The information supplied is based on our present knowledge and concerns appropriate application in delivery condition.

Burgebrach, 18/07/2023

Thomann GmbH
Hans-Thomann-Straße 1
D-96138 Burgebrach

Phone: +49 (0)9546 9223-0

Fax: +49 (0)9546 9223-24

Website: www.thomann.de

Email: kundenservice@thomann.de